Sogang Korean, a renowned textbook series developed by Sogang University, offers a structured approach to learning Korean for learners of all levels. The series consists of five main levels, each divided into two parts (A and B). The curriculum covers reading, writing, listening, and speaking, with real-life applications and cultural insights. The textbooks are accompanied by workbooks and grammar books, providing additional practice materials and in-depth explanations of Korean grammar points. While physical copies are widely available, many learners seek digital versions for convenience. PDF versions can be found online, but it's essential to respect copyright laws and support the publishers when possible. Ask the publishers to restore access to 500,000+ books.
